

GROWING THE POJ

A ONE-DAY CONSULTATION TO CREATE OUR FUTURE

Come, be part of a one day experience to dream about how the Presbytery of the James can grow disciples for Jesus Christ. We'll explore new church development, church transformation, church revitalization, evangelism, new worshipping communities. We'll work on developing a strategy for the presbytery to embrace growth of persons in numbers and spiritual maturity.

August 28, 2014, is the date. Time is 9:30 am– 3:00 pm. Place is Richmond Hall on the Union Presbyterian Seminary Campus.

Who is invited? The entire presbytery: teaching and ruling elders and persons interested in exploring how we can expand our ministry and outreach in this part of God's Kingdom.

LEADERSHIP includes Shannon Kiser, Mission Catalyst for 1001 New Worshipping Communities; Ray Jones, Coordinator of Evangelism Ministries, PC (USA); and Ann Philbrick, Associate for Church Growth and Transformation, PC (USA).

Requirement: Registration . . . No cost, lunch and snacks provided . . . But Registration is required. To register, call the office 262-2074, or email your name, church and if you want a vegetarian meal to franklinr@pbyjames.org. or just REGISTER HERE.

Deadline for registration is Tuesday, August 26, 2014.