

Monday, 28 December 2020 – Weekly Inspiration from Rev. Jason

...now about that time some wise men [aka magi, astrologers] from eastern lands arrived in Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star as it rose, and we have come to worship him'" (Matthew 2:1a-2, NLT)

One aspect of life I appreciate about this time of year is the ability to more readily watch the sunrise with my morning coffee. Watching and bearing witness to the light as it creeps higher into the dark sky, bringing with it the new day, has become a joy in recent years; it allows me time to gather and center my thoughts for the day, and to do so around the One who brings life and light. It is a daily opportunity to 'follow the star' (spiritually speaking).

As this day dawns, who do you seek, and by what star do you do so? What calls you onward in your faith journey, and how will you live it out?

Prayer: Lord of life and light, as the sun rises for each day may it light my path toward you, first and foremost. May my steps hasten to bring me to you, bringing worship, praise, and dedication. For the glory of your Kingdom. Amen.
