GREGORY MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We welcome you to worship with us this morning, as we gather in community to draw closer to God, made known in Christ. We pray that you will know the presence of the Lord, through our worship, and through the work of the Spirit. We invite you to take these moments before worship to calm your hearts and minds and open yourself to the quiet stillness of God's presence!

CALL TO CONFESSION [PASTOR]

Sometimes God gives us the simplest of instructions; yet they don't seem worthy of our time or commitment. Knowing that we digress and acknowledging that we transgress, let us confess our sins together at this time with our prayer of confession.

Prayer of Confession [In unison]

O Lord, we extol you once more. We cry for your help. For we have not followed your will. We have not helped bear one another's burdens. We have not been your faithful laborers going out into your harvest. We have fallen into the pit of self-deception and self-reliance again. We ask that you draw us up and draw us more into your pervasive presence. By your favor we confess and through your abundant mercy we make our supplication. Hear and be gracious to us! Cleanse our souls so that we may praise you in fullness once more. Amen.

(Continuing in silent personal confessions....)

ASSURANCE OF PARDON [PASTOR]

My friends, even though we have been detected in transgression, the Spirit seeks to restore us in a spirit of gentleness. Anyone who has washed is made clean and anyone who has asked is pardoned! In Jesus Christ, you are forgiven and restored!

Congregational Response Hymn #581 "Glory Be to the Father"

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION [In unison]

Establishing and equipping God, where you say "go" may we go. When you say "restore" may we work towards your restoration. And in what you describe as "joy" may we live into and out of as we hear your Word speaking to us once again on this day. We love you, Lord. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH [In unison]

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

[Apostles' Creed]

CALL FOR THE OFFERING [PASTOR]

The psalmist writes, "You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy, so that my soul may praise you and not be silent. O Lord my God, I will give ..." May our gifts today be given in that spirit!

OFFERING, OFFERTORY

 Doxology Hymn #606 "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow"

PRAYER OF DEDICATION [In unison]

O Lord, our God, you have called us into the bountiful fields of this world, may we go and fulfill your harvest. O Lord, our God, you have established us as strong mountains, may we stand for your glory and justice in this world. O Lord, my God, you have given us so much; please accept these our responses with our gratitude. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & LORD'S PRAYER

One: We extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn us up, you rejoice with us, and you alone heal our souls. We celebrate and praise your name for you are the one who meets us and greets us and challenges us and loves us with passion and strength.

All: By your favor, you have established us as your people, and you have chosen to remain steadfast by our side.

One: God, hear our thanks. We thank you for this day. We thank you for this time to gather. We thank you for this place and these people and your church. We thank you for your undeserved and unearned gifts of grace and peace and mercy. Help us to receive all that you give us with the posture of gratitude and allow it to shape us as we continue to live and move in this your world. God, hear our cries. We cry out for those who feel they are the least — either because others have made them feel that way or because they have lost their notion of being your beloved. We cry out for the last — those who have a hard time finishing because of their circumstances or those who are pushed to the end of the line by this world.

All: We cry out for those who are lost — either lost in cycles of addition, violence, systems or lost in the never-ending rat race of this world.

One: We pray for these people in our midst and these people in our communities. For those who have suffered loss, bring your peace. For those who are sick, bring relief. For those who are unknowingly suffering from unchecked pride, give them humility. For those who need your presence, allow us to share glimpses of you with them this week. For all these people and more, we pray. And now hear us as we boldly pray that great prayer of trust that you taught us, "Our Father..."

DEPARTING HYMN # _____

CHARGE & BENEDICTION [Pastor]

The Lord has heard. The Lord is our helper. The Lord now sends us back into the fields with the assurance that the harvest is plentiful. So go. Go out. Go forth with the grace and peace of God our Creator, our Redeemer, and our Sustainer now and forevermore. Amen.
